The Government of Nepal has launched the Taxpayer Incentive Reward Program 2083 to make the tax system more transparent, efficient, and citizen-friendly. The main objective of this program is to encourage citizens to develop the habit of collecting VAT or PAN invoices, promote legitimate business transactions, and strengthen the revenue collection system.

If you receive a VAT or PAN invoice while purchasing goods or services, you may have the opportunity to win attractive cash rewards through this program.

What is the Taxpayer Incentive Reward Program 2083?

The Taxpayer Incentive Reward Program 2083 is a government initiative under which consumers who collect valid VAT or PAN invoices will be eligible for a digital lucky draw. Winners will be selected fairly through the digital system operated by the Inland Revenue Department.

The program aims not only to encourage consumers to collect invoices but also to motivate businesses to conduct transactions through the formal tax system.

Main Objectives of the Program

- Develop the habit of collecting invoices among citizens.
- Encourage consumers through attractive rewards.
- Record legitimate business transactions in the government tax system.
- Reduce revenue leakage.
- Increase transparency and accountability in the tax system.

Reward Details

The program offers two types of cash rewards: daily rewards and fortnightly bumper rewards.

Daily Reward

- NPR 133,333
- One winner every day

Fortnightly Bumper Reward

- NPR 1,000,000
- One lucky winner every fortnight

This provides regular opportunities for consumers who collect invoices to win significant cash prizes.

How Are Winners Selected?

Winners will be selected through a fair and transparent digital system operated by the Inland Revenue Department. The selection process will be conducted electronically based on eligible invoice records.

This digital process is designed to ensure fairness and equal opportunity for all eligible participants.

How Will the Reward Amount Be Received?

The reward amount will be deposited directly into the winner's bank account.

Please note the following important conditions:

- A 25% tax on windfall gains will be deducted from the prize amount as per the Income Tax Act.
- The remaining amount will be deposited into the winner's bank account.

What Happens If the Prize Is Not Claimed?

If the winner fails to claim the prize within the prescribed period, the reward amount will be transferred to the Prime Minister's Disaster Relief Fund.

Eligibility for Participation

The following individuals and entities are eligible to participate in the program:

- Businesses registered under VAT or PAN.
- Individual consumers.
- Consumers who purchase goods or services and receive a valid VAT or PAN invoice.

A valid VAT or PAN invoice obtained during the purchase of goods or services is the basis for participation in the program.

How to Participate

To participate in the program, follow these steps:

1. Always request a VAT or PAN invoice when purchasing goods or services.
2. Keep the invoice safely.
3. Provide the required information through the digital system if necessary.
4. Ensure that your bank account details are accurate and updated.

Why Is It Important to Collect an Invoice?

Collecting an invoice is not only an opportunity to win cash rewards but also a responsibility of a responsible citizen.

By collecting invoices:

- Tax evasion is reduced.
- Actual business transactions are properly recorded.
- Government revenue increases.
- Public services and infrastructure development are supported.
- Consumer rights are better protected.

Conclusion

The Taxpayer Incentive Reward Program 2083 is an important government initiative that encourages citizens to collect VAT or PAN invoices. With daily cash rewards of NPR 133,333 and a fortnightly bumper prize of NPR 1,000,000, the program provides a valuable incentive while contributing to a more transparent and efficient tax system.

Therefore, whenever you purchase goods or services, always ask for a VAT or PAN invoice. Doing so not only protects your consumer rights and supports the national economy but also gives you the chance to win attractive cash rewards.
